

W. Phillips.

Aug 26, 1881

Miss A. W. Weston

New Bedford,

Mass.

193.9

ms. A.9.2.25. 113

Ms. A.9.2, v.13, p.8
Dr. Anne,

In writing to Emerson would it not be well to suggest that he might give you, for the Bell, an extract from his Antislavery Speech - say his analysis of Webster, which was very acute & finely wrought - a bi-nignant denunciation

of the no higher law
heresy -

I merely mention
it because reluctance to write something new,
or difficulty of writing a subject are the a very most frequent cause of the no' you receive.

As he does not seem to intend the publication of the lecture he might let us preserve the part of it for posterity

Yours truly
W. Phillips

Thursday

I have put down, confusedly, some names, most of which you will have thought of, for the Bell Some doubtful merely suggested for your more mature thought

Shackford Lynn
Johnson Salem?
Frothingham do
Stone do
Putnam (?) Lynn
Farness Phila
J.T. Sargent Boston
J.A. Andrew (?)
Higginson nursery pat

J.W. Browne

Spokes, Miss Townsend, I think
quite an invalid Phila - EM Dar could get at her - a fine intellect - she wrote Milton on his blindness, "which some people mistook for a very discovered poem of D. Milton;" -

Adm Ballou a some of Wopdate folks ~~now~~ I wish were possible to ask Mrs Stanton but it is not - she anti reality

Ioshea Barker Take something of Cowell's from the Standard & I or saith such & write him.

ms. A. 1.2.26.113